Autism Pensacola, Inc.
P.O. Box 30213
Pensacola, FL 32503

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of our engagement with Autism Pensacola, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2021 and to clarify the nature and extent of the tax services we will provide.

Our engagement is limited to performing the following services:

1. Prepare the 2021 Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax Return, and state income tax return(s), if applicable.
2. Prepare any bookkeeping entries we find necessary in connection with preparation of the income tax returns.
3. Prepare and post any adjusting entries.

This engagement letter does not include any services or responsibility on our part to advise you on payroll, sales, or use tax matters, or preparation of any tax returns relative to such matter. Nor does this engagement letter cover the preparation of any financial statements, which, if we are to provide, will be covered under a separate engagement letter.

Numerous federal income tax law changes are effective beginning with the 2018 tax year, some of which have created significant additional complexity and uncertainty for taxpayers. Official guidance is lacking in many cases, and state conformity with federal laws varies and continues to evolve. Legislative developments, administrative changes, or future judicial interpretations may impact tax advice provided by us. However, the scope of our engagement excludes any obligation to update advice previously provided.

You are responsible for the safeguarding of assets, the proper recording of transactions in the books of accounts, the substantial accuracy of the financial records, and the full and accurate disclosure of all relevant facts affecting the return(s) to us. You also have final responsibility for the tax return and, therefore, the appropriate officials should review the return carefully before an authorized officer signs the return(s).

You are responsible for assuming all management responsibilities, and for overseeing any services we provide by designating an individual, preferably within senior management, who possesses suitable skill, knowledge, or experience. In addition, you are responsible for evaluating the adequacy and results of the services performed and accepting responsibility for the results of such services.

You are responsible for informing us, in writing, if you participate in any reportable transactions. Additional reporting of such transactions may be required at an additional fee. A reportable transaction may be a transaction: (1) listed transaction—the same as/substantially similar to one of the transactions the IRS has determined to be a tax avoidance transaction (see irs.gov/businesses/corporations/listed-transactions); (2) confidential transaction—offered to you/related party under conditions of confidentiality and for which you/related party paid an advisor a minimum fee of $50,000 ($250,000 for C corporations or partnerships/trusts in which all owners or beneficiaries are C corporations); (3) transaction with contractual protection—for which you or related parties have the right to a full or partial refund of fees if all or part of the intended tax consequences from the transaction are not sustained, or for which fees are contingent on your realization of tax benefits from the transaction; (4) loss transaction—that results in you claiming a loss under Internal Revenue Code Section 165 if the amount of the loss is at least $2 million in any single tax year or $4 million in any combination of tax years ($10 million/$20 million for C corporations and partnerships with only C corporations as partners); and/or (5) transaction of interest—the same as/substantially similar to one of the types of transactions the IRS has identified as a transaction of interest and believes has a potential for tax avoidance or evasion, but for which there is not enough information to determine if the transaction should be identified as a tax avoidance transaction.

You are responsible for informing us, in writing, of any holdings of/transactions in virtual currency (i.e. cryptocurrency or any other digital representation of value) at any time during the tax year, as these are subject to taxation and reporting may be required (see Notice 2014-21, irs.gov/pub/irs-drop/n-14-21.pdf). If you do not do so, your tax return may be incorrect, and tax, interest, penalties, and other assessments may be imposed, for which we have no responsibility. Because the Internal Revenue Code requires taxpayers to maintain records sufficient to establish positions taken on tax returns, you should maintain records documenting receipts, sales, exchanges, or other dispositions of virtual currency, and the fair market value of the virtual currency. Because tax law related to virtual currency is new/evolving/unclear, any recommended tax treatment will be based on interpretation of the guidance available at the time of consultation, and there is an inherent risk that future revisions may be needed, resulting in additional tax, interest, penalties, and other assessments, for which we will not be responsible.

We may provide you with a questionnaire or other document requesting specific information. Completing those forms will assist us in making sure you are well served for a reasonable fee. You represent that the information you are supplying to us is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge and that you have disclosed to us all relevant facts affecting the returns. We will not verify the information you give us; however, we may ask for additional clarification of some information.

If, during our work, we discover information that affects prior-year tax returns, we will make you aware of the facts. However, we cannot be responsible for identifying all items that may affect prior-year returns. If you become aware of such information during the year, please contact us to discuss the best resolution of the issue. We will be happy to prepare appropriate amended returns as a separate engagement.

Our work in connection with the preparation of the tax return(s) does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist. The returns will be prepared solely from information provided to us without verification by us.

The firm may from time to time, and depending on the circumstances, use third-party service providers to assist in preparing your return, but these preparers will not make substantive decisions concerning your return. We may share your tax return information with these service providers, but remain committed to maintaining the confidentiality and security of your information. Accordingly, we maintain internal policies, procedures and safeguards to protect the confidentiality of your personal information. In addition, we will secure confidentiality agreements with all service providers to maintain the confidentiality of your information and we will take reasonable precautions to determine that they have appropriate procedures in place to prevent the unauthorized release of your confidential information to others. In the event that we are unable to secure an appropriate confidentiality agreement, you will be asked to provide your consent prior to the sharing of your confidential information with the third-party service provider. Furthermore, the firm will remain responsible for the work provided by any such third-party service providers.

The Internal Revenue Service and the U.S. Treasury Department require that you disclose and separately file certain information forms regarding any interest in or signature or other authority over certain financial assets in a foreign country that you had, directly or indirectly, at any time during the tax year (if you are an entity, this includes the entity and its officers and owners). Financial assets include any financial account maintained by a financial institution (e.g., bank account, securities account), stocks or other interests in a foreign entity not held by a financial institution, or any financial instrument or contract issued by a foreign person/entity. There are substantial penalties for failure to file these forms. If you have or had any such interest or authority, you are responsible for providing us, in writing in a timely manner, with all information necessary to prepare the applicable forms for filing. If you do not do so, we will not be able to prepare and file the applicable forms, and penalties may be due, for which we have no responsibility.

You are responsible for complying with any other country's income reporting and tax filing requirements. We have no obligation to prepare or file such returns on your behalf. Please contact us in writing if you have specific questions or concerns regarding foreign tax filing obligations.

In accordance with federal law, in no case will we disclose your tax return information to any location outside the United States, to another tax return preparer outside of our firm for purposes of a second opinion, or to any other third party for any purpose other than to prepare your return without first receiving your consent.

The internal Revenue Code and regulations impose preparation and disclosure standards with noncompliance penalties on both the preparer of a tax return and on the taxpayer. To avoid exposure to these penalties, it may be necessary in some cases to make certain disclosures to you and/or in the tax return concerning positions taken on the return that do not meet these standards. Accordingly, we will advise you if we identify such a situation and we will discuss those tax positions that may increase the risk of exposure to penalties and any recommended disclosures with you before completing the preparation of the return. If we conclude that we are obligated to disclose a position and you refuse to permit the disclosure, we reserve the right to withdraw from the engagement. Likewise, where we disagree about the obligation to disclose position, you also have a right to choose another professional to prepare your return. In either event, you agree to compensate us for our services to the date of withdrawal. Our engagement with you will terminate upon our withdrawal.

The IRS permits you to authorize us to discuss, on a limited basis, aspects of your return for one year after the return's due date. Your consent to such a discussion is evidenced by checking a box on the return. Unless you tell us otherwise, we will check that box authorizing the IRS to discuss your return with us.

It is our policy to keep records related to this engagement for seven years. However, we do not keep any of your original records, so we will return those to you upon the completion of the engagement. When records are returned to you, it is your responsibility to retain and protect the records for possible future use, including potential examination by governmental or regulatory agencies.

By signing this engagement letter, you acknowledge and agree that upon the expiration of the seven year period, we are free to destroy our records related to this engagement.

Certain communications involving tax advice are privileged and not subject to disclosure to the IRS. By disclosing the contents of those communication to anyone, or by turning over information about those communications to the government, you, your employees, or agents may be waiving this privilege. To protect this right to privileged communication, please consult with us or your attorney prior to disclosing any information about our tax advice. Should you decide that it is appropriate for us to disclose any potentially privileged communication, you agree to provide us with written, advance authority to make that disclosure.

The return(s) may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. In the event of an audit, you may be requested to produce documents, records, or other evidence to substantiate the items of income and deduction shown on a tax return. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of a tax examination, we will be available, upon request, to represent you. However, such additional services are not included in the fees for the preparation of the tax return(s).

Our fees for this engagement are not contingent on the results of our services. Rather, our fees for this engagement, including tax planning, preparation of your returns, and any representation of your interests during an examination by a taxing authority and/or any subsequent appeal, will be based on our blended rates of $110 to $135 per hour; with a minimum rate of $895 for the federal income tax return and additional expenses for any required state income tax returns. In addition, you agree to reimburse us for any of our out-of-pocket costs incurred in connection with the performance of our services.

Our fees and costs will be billed monthly, and are payable upon receipt. Invoices unpaid 30 days past the billing date may be deemed delinquent, and are subject to a late charge of 1.5% per month. In the absence of a written objection to any invoice within 30 days of the invoice date, you will be deemed to have accepted and acknowledged, as correct, the services rendered as described in the invoice and the value thereof.

We reserve the right to suspend our services or to withdraw from this engagement in the event that any of our invoices are deemed delinquent. In the event that any collection action is required to collect unpaid balances due us, you agree to reimburse us for our costs of collection, including attorneys' fees. If we elect to terminate our services for nonpayment, or for any other reason provided for in this letter, our engagement will be deemed to have been completed upon written notification of termination, even if we have not completed our report. You will be obligated to compensate us for all time expended, and to reimburse us for all of our out-of-pocket costs, through the date of termination.

In the event we are required to respond to a subpoena, court order or other legal process for the production of documents and/or testimony relative to information we obtained and/or prepared during the course of this engagement, you agree to compensate us at our hourly rates, as set forth above, for the time we expend in connection with such response, and to reimburse us for all of our out-of-pocket costs incurred in that regard.

In the event that we are or may be obligated to pay any cost, settlement, judgment, fine, penalty, or similar award or sanction as a result of a claim, investigation, or other proceeding instituted by any third party, and if such obligation is or may be a direct or indirect result of any inaccurate, incomplete, or misleading information that you provide to us during the course of this engagement (with or without your knowledge or intent), you agree to indemnify us, defend us, and hold us harmless as against such obligation.

The parties to this engagement agree that any dispute that may arise regarding the meaning, performance or enforcement of this engagement (except actions by the firm to enforce payment of its professional invoices), will, prior to resorting to litigation, be submitted to mediation, and that they will engage in the mediation process in good faith. Any mediation initiated as a result of this engagement shall be administered by a mutually agreed upon mediator who is certified by the Florida Supreme Court, unless the parties mutually agree otherwise. The results of any such mediation shall be binding only upon agreement of each party to be bound. Any charges imposed by the mediation organization shall be shared equally by the parties.

Autism Pensacola, Inc. and Lambert Lanza CPAs, P.A. both agree that any dispute over fees charged by us will be submitted for resolution by arbitration in accordance with the Rules for Professional Accounting and Related Services Disputes of the American Arbitration Association. Such arbitration shall be binding and final. In agreeing to arbitration, we both acknowledge that, in the event of a dispute over fees charged by the accountant, each of us is giving up the right to have the dispute decided in a court of law before a judge or jury and instead we are accepting the use of arbitration for resolution.

Any litigation arising out of this engagement, except actions by us to enforce payment of our professional invoices, must be asserted within three years from the completion of the engagement, notwithstanding any statutory provision to the contrary. In the event of litigation brought against us, any judgment you obtain shall be limited in amount, and shall not exceed the amount of the fee charged by us, and paid by you, for the services set forth in this engagement letter. In no event will we be responsible for any additional tax that may be assessed against you, or any interest that may be assessed against you with respect to such additional tax.

We may communicate with you and/or store engagement data via email, portals, cloud platforms, or other digital means. We and any of our third-party vendors will maintain reasonable measures to safeguard communications and engagement data in those environments. Notwithstanding those measures, there exist inherent risks that engagement data may be breached, and in the specific case of email, that messages may be undelivered, or intercepted or used by, disclosed to, or shared with an unintended third party. You accept those risks and authorize us to proceed with the aforementioned digital activities. Further, we advise you to make use of our portal or encrypted email as the most secure means of digitally transmitting to us your confidential, proprietary, and personally-identifiable information. You agree to hold us harmless as to any adverse consequence you may sustain as a result of sharing your data with us not in accordance with our advice, or from any other data breach in connection with this engagement, except to the extent determined to have been caused by our gross negligence or willful misconduct. In the event of a data breach, each of us agrees to notify the other in the most expedient time possible and without unreasonable delay.

If, after full consideration and consultation with counsel if so desired, you agree that the foregoing terms shall govern this engagement, please execute this letter on the line below designated for your signature, and return the original of this executed letter to this office along with the signed Form 8879-EO, IRS e-file signature authorization. You should keep a copy of this fully executed letter for your records.

Thank you for your attention to this matter, and please contact our office with any questions that you may have.

Sincerely,

Lambert Lanza, CPAs, P.A.

CONSUMER DISCLOSURE

From time to time, Lambert Lanza, CPA's P.A. (we, us or Company) may be required by law to provide to you certain written notices or disclosures. Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such notices and disclosures electronically through the DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign) electronic signing system. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to these terms and conditions, please confirm your agreement by clicking the 'I agree' button at the bottom of this document.

Getting paper copies

At any time, you may request from us a paper copy of any record provided or made available electronically to you by us. You will have the ability to download and print documents we send to you through the DocuSign system during and immediately after signing session and, if you elect to create a DocuSign signer account, you may access them for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. After such time, if you wish for us to send you paper copies of any such documents from our office to you, you will be charged a $0.00 per-page fee. You may request delivery of such paper copies from us by following the procedure described below.

Withdrawing your consent

If you decide to receive notices and disclosures from us electronically, you may at any time change your mind and tell us that thereafter you want to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format. How you must inform us of your decision to receive future notices and disclosure in paper format and withdraw your consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically is described below.

Consequences of changing your mind

If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required notices or disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper notices or disclosures. To indicate to us that you are changing your mind, you must withdraw your consent using the DocuSign 'Withdraw Consent' form on the signing page of a DocuSign envelope instead of signing it. This will indicate to us that you have withdrawn your consent to receive required notices and disclosures electronically from us and you will no longer be able to use the DocuSign system to receive required notices and consents electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All notices and disclosures will be sent to you electronically

Unless you tell us otherwise in accordance with the procedures described herein, we will provide electronically to you through the DocuSign system all required notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to you during the course of our relationship with you. To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any notice or disclosure, we prefer to provide all of the required notices and disclosures to you by the same method and to the same address that you have given us. Thus, you can receive all the disclosures and notices electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below. Please also see the paragraph immediately above that describes the consequences of your electing not to receive delivery of the notices and disclosures electronically from us.
